KOREAN ARMISTICE REMOTE, CLAIMS VAN FLEET

LESS CHANCE THAN BEFORE, HE CONTENDS

Seoul, Korea. (P)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet said today there is less chance for an armistice in Korea than ever before.

The U. S. Eighth Army commander told a news conference the prospect for an armistice is in direct proportion to the amount of military pressure put on the Communists and that the Communists believe the United Nations forces will not attack to force a truce.

Munsan, Korea. (P)—The Communists today suggested a possible significant change in the world of the proposed Korean armistice document now under study by officials of both sides.

It dealt with a paragraph relating to war prisoners. The issue of prisoner exchange has blocked a truce for months.

The Reds proposed changing the term "captured personnel" to "prisoners of war" in paragraph 1, which would then read:

"Each side agrees to insure that shall not employ in acts of war the Korean conflict any prisoners of war released from custody incident to the armistice."

Col. Duncan S. Somerville, U. N. command staff officer, said he had asked the Reds for clarification.

New Voices Join Republicans' Harmony Chorus as Democrat Discord Is Heard in the South

Wage Stabilization Board Re-born But Is Still Unmanned

Washington (P)—A shiny new Wage Stabilization Board free from the bitterness and controversy which surrounded its predecessor came into legal existence today.

As yet unnamed, the new board will look much like the old WSB which, with a membership of 18 representing the public interest, labor and industry, was ordered disbanded by Congress because of recommendations it made last March in its effort to settle the critical steel dispute.

The new WSB has no power to deal with nation-wide labor disputes; all its members will need Senate confirmation; and all regulations it may issue to control wages must be cleared first by the economic stabilization agency headed by Roger L. Putnam.

The new board has already crossed one hurdle: the AFL announced that it will reappoint its representation on the old board to the new board.

The CIO maintained official silence but there was no question it too would agree to participate.

Stated for chairmanship is Harvard law professor Archibald Cox, a young labor relations expert who now is co-chairman of the Construction Industry Stabilization Commission.

Missing from the new board will be Nathan P. Feinsinger, chairman of the outgoing board for the past 11 months.

'FRISCO'S AMATEUR ROBBERS CAPTURED

San Francisco (P)—San Francisco's fantastic $20,000 bank robbery-kidnaping had a quick and just as fantastic solution—arrest of the confessed gunman and an accomplice because they left $17,000 of the loot in a taxi cab.

Frederick Charles Will, 33, a draftsman from Pittsburgh, Pa., and his roommate, Sidney Dubow, 33, an accounting student from New York, were arrested yesterday—less than 20 hours after the holdup.

Will readily confessed he bluffed manager Walter Blomberg of an American Trust Co. branch bank here into handing over $20,000 in small bills, then forcing the banker to accompany him on a bus ride to allay possible suspicion of bank employees.

SCALISE, KORNEICH DO WELL IN TOURNEY

D. A. Scalise and M. A. Kornreich, who have just returned from the national tournament of the American Contract Bridge League in Cincinnati, entered four events and were sectional winners in three of them.

In the George H. Newstedt Pairs competition, Sunday, they were first in their section and third over all sections in a field of 264 pairs. Monday afternoon, in the Coca-Cola Pairs, they were first in their section and third over all sections in a field of 142 pairs. Monday night, in the Alfred M. Jonap Memorial Pairs competition, they were first in their section and fourth over all sections in a field of 112 pairs.

ARMY WIFE GUILTY IN BLACK MARKET CASE

Weisbaden, Germany (P)—Mrs. Katherine G. Reed, 44, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., wife of an American Air Force colonel, was convicted today of five charges of selling coffee and gasoline coupons and making illegal currency exchanges on the German black market.

She was found innocent of two other charges of importing coffee for re-sale and buying military scrip for American dollars.

HIGHER PRICES FOR ALL CARBON PRODUCTS

Pittsburgh (P)—All carbon, alloy and stainless steel products shipped on and after July 28 will show higher prices, U. S. Steel Co. says.

Big Steel said the material will be "invoiced at the new prices when the Director of Price Stabilization has established the authorized increase in ceiling prices for individual products."

TAPPED FOR PRODUCTION—Sparks fly for the first time since the beginning of the steel strike as an open-hearth furnace is tapped at the South Chicago plant of the U. S. Steel Corp. Economists estimate that the nation's economy will not fully recover from the strike for eight months although the steel mills are once again in operation.

Volunteer Firemen Of County To Have Outing August 17th

Gurney Hall, general chairman for the annual picnic and outing of the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association, today announced plans for the event which will take place at Wilder Field, August 17.

Mr. Ball stated that the departments at Corydon, Kinzua, Tidoute and Wrightsville will have charge of the entertainment. Russell, Columbus and Pleasant Township departments will arrange for the sports, Clarendon and Sheffield will have charge of refreshments, Sugar Grove and North Warren departments make up the food committee, while the Youngsville department is in charge of providing the grounds, tables, etc.

Corydon Old Home Week Is Launched

Perfect weather proved a contributing factor in helping Old Home Week to get away to an excellent start Tuesday evening, designated as "opening night." The show grounds were well patronized and every person seemed to have a most enjoyable time.

Tonight will be devoted to fun and frolic for all who desire to participate, and the first big event of the week is scheduled for Thursday evening when the band from the Odd Fellows' Childrens Home will play a concert.

A kiddies' matinee is scheduled for Saturday afternoon and the week's events will be climaxed with a huge firemen's parade at seven o'clock Saturday evening. The committee in charge says there will be at least 25 marching units and the awarding of prizes will take place at the show grounds.

Great Chesapeake 45 Million Dollar Bridge Opens Today

Sandy Point, Md. (P)—Maryland today presented its greatest public work to the nation, a 45-million-dollar bridge across Chesapeake Bay.

Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin and William Preston Lane, Jr., who talked down all the opposition and got the bridge started when he was governor before McKeldin, had four black and gold ribbons to cut at formal dedication exercises.

The ribbon snipping opened the first bridge ever built across Chesapeake Bay, reaching over a 4.3-mile stretch of water just above Annapolis.

WASH.-JEFF. LISTS 1952 FOOTBALL SKED

Washington, Pa. (P)—Joseph McMullen, Washington and Jefferson College football coach, today listed a six game schedule for the school's 59th gridiron season. Fall practice sessions start Sept. 2. The schedule: Sept. 27, Denison; Oct. 4, Case; Sept. 18, at Geneva, night; 25, at Thiel; Nov. 1, at Carnegie Tech; 8, Upsala.

MOURNERS CONTINUE TO PASS PERON BIER

Buenos Aires, Argentina (P)—The body of Eva Peron remained on public view today, her funeral postponed indefinitely until the crush of mourners slows down. There was no letup, however, in the thousands crowding in to the capital.

FBI Claims Proof Communist Party Plans Force and Violence To Overthrow Government

Washington (P)—An FBI report claims documentary proof that the Communist party in the United States "teaches and advocates the overthrow and destruction of the U. S. government by force and violence."

The long-secret report was made public yesterday, with the permission of FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, by the Senate internal security subcommittee headed by Sen. McCarran D-Nev.

It says William Z. Foster, chairman of the Communist party in this country, in July 1940 called the writings of Stalin, Lenin, Engels and Marx "Communist classics" . . . accepted by all Communist parties, including our own . . . we American Communists apply them strategically and tactically in the need of specific American conditions."

Air Reservists In Warren Area To Be Fully Interviewed

Harrisburg, Pa. (P)—A face-to-face inventory of Bradford area Air Force Reservists is scheduled to begin in late September, the Air Force said today.

Air Reservists in Warren, McKean and Potter counties will be personally questioned in Bradford concerning their dependency status, civilian job, physical condition, and military and civilian skills acquired since last separation from military service.

First Air Reserve District headquarters in Harrisburg responsible for administering Pennsylvania's 20,000 inactive Air Reservists said that the inventory "had nothing to do with any Air Force recall program, but was a chance to bring our reserve records up to date."

Colonel Charles W. Skeele, district commander explained.

"Most of our reserve records date from 1945 or 1946. If we attempted any all-out mobilization program based on records seven years old, we would cause individual hardships and waste the taxpayer's money."

JONES & LAUGHLIN GRANTS PAY BOOST

Pittsburgh (P)—About 4,000 salaried employees of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. have been granted an average 10 per cent pay boost, retroactive to March 1.

The increase covers all supervisory employees in J. and L. plants at Pittsburgh, Aliquippa and Cleveland. Top officials are not sharing in the raise.

J. and L. was one of six major steel producers which recently granted hourly workers an average 21-cent-an-hour package raise in a strike-ending agreement with the CIO United Steelworkers.

CARELESS GENERAL GIVEN REPRIMAND

Ft. Meade, Md. (P)—The American general who was reported by the Russians to have kept a diary advocating a hit-and-run war with the Soviet Union has been convicted of letting his diary fall into Communist hands.

Technically, Maj. Gen. Robert W. Grow was found guilty by a court martial yesterday of two offenses: jolting down military secrets in his personal diary and failing to safeguard classified data.

He was sentenced to a reprimand, which will count against future promotion, and suspension from command for six months.

WAGE CONTROLS FOR NINE CLASSIFICATIONS IN SMALL BUSINESS

Washington (P)—Nine types of small business enterprises have been put under wage controls by Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam.

They are:

Trucking outfits; tool and die enterprises; automotive repair; logging operations and sawmills; building and construction industry; all Alaska concerns; new small businesses which expect to hire more than eight employees soon; concerns in which the pay of one or more employees is set up on an industry or area basis; and enterprises other than banks which get 25 per cent or more of their business income from dividends, interest, rents or royalties.

WAYNESBURG ENJOYS ITS JULY 29TH RAIN

Waynesburg, Pa. (P)—It rained yesterday in this Southwestern Pennsylvania city. But after four straight years of tradition-breaking dryness, nobody seemed to care much.

For more than 70 years residents kept alive the tradition that it always rains in Waynesburg on July 29. Atty. John Daily began 10 years ago to bet hats with celebrities that it would. Usually he won.

But in 1945 he lost. And again the following three years. This year Daily and other citizens decided to forget the whole thing. So it rained.

LATROBE GOLFER IS FAVORED IN TOURNEY

Pittsburgh (P)—Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., was favored today to win his fourth straight West Penn Amateur Golf title after capturing medalist honors with an even par 36-35-72.

Thirty-two golfers qualified yesterday at Fox Chapel Golf Club for the 52nd annual match play tournament which runs through Friday. There was a three-way tie for second in the near-record field of 112 starters. Tied with 73 were Pete Jordan, Chartiers, 37-36; Dr. George Lipman, Field Club, 35-38; and Charley Manning Jr., Youghiogheny, 36-37.

SEE DELAY IN REARMAMENT OF GERMANY

Harrisburg, Germany (P)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer won a court victory today in his fight for ratification of his country's alliance with the West but the way was left open for more legal battles that could delay German rearmament.

The Constitutional Court ruled it could not consider Socialist challenges of the peace contract with the Allies and the European Army agreement until the pacts had been enacted into law by the West German Parliament.

Two treaties, ending most occupation controls and obligating West Germany to raise 500,000 troops for the proposed European Army, come up for final vote after the Lower House of Parliament, the Bundestag, reconvenes in September.

The court decision was a big boost toward ratification, since the tribunal refused to rule on Socialist contentions that the pacts could be approved only after national elections chose a new Parliament and after a constitutional amendment authorizing rearmament.

No Objects Seen By Sky Watchers Here

While state and national Civil Defense Forces are making a serious effort to track mysterious objects reported to be streaking across the sky in same areas, not any of the seven observation posts being operated full time in Warren county or the three that are manned part time has reported seeing any of the so-called strange flying saucers.

It was reported today that the Air Force in Washington is keeping in touch with the situation and may have some announcement. The Air Force is anxious to learn more about the flying "thingamajigs" and invites bonafide reports of strange objects of any nature seen in the sky.

Where the flying saucer scare five years ago was laughed off under the guise of hallucinations, this time the Air Force is taking a lively interest in the 1952 reports. So far the airborne objects remain a mystery.

EXTRA 168 MILLIONS IS PROMISED FRANCE

Washington (P)—The United States has promised France an extra 168 million dollars to help step up arms production—but has turned down an urgent French plea for another 439 millions for the same purpose.

The French government was reportedly "shocked," and the French press critical.

Diplomatic authorities yesterday said the new funds would help finance production of a new French-designed fighter plane and some artillery shell production.

'NOT CURIOUS' SAYS EINSTEIN OF SAUCERS

Los Angeles (P)—Physicist Albert Einstein is serenely unconcerned about flying saucers.

Evangelist Louis A. Gardner Einstein at Princeton to ask his opinion. Einstein replied:

"These people have seen something underlined. What it is I do not know and I am not curious to know."

This was the extent of his reply.

Conflicts Limited As Rain Drenches Korea Battlefront

Seoul, Korea (P)—One minor action was reported today as rain drenched the Korean battle front for the sixth straight day.

Mainly ground contact was limited to brief exchanges between patrols.

But on the Western Front, near the shell-ripped hill Old Baldy, U. N. troops counterattacked a second time against an advance position seized by 200 Reds early Tuesday.

A thunderous artillery barrage and Allied infantry charge early this morning failed to dislodge the Reds.

Jittery California Town Camps Out As More 'Quakes Felt

Bakersfield, Calif. (P)—An atom bomb wouldn't scare the residents this busy farming town much more than they are today. Bakersfield has been through another earthquake. Several, in fact.

Homes have burned, and hundreds of jittery residents camped out after the last series of quakes yesterday. They feared their own homes almost as much as the buildings were radiation-contaminated.

And an exodus, such as might come from any atom-blasted area, has begun.

At least 2,000 workers are needed at once to repair irrigation lines damaged by the quakes. Other thousands are needed to harvest a million-dollar cotton crop, imperiled by lack of irrigation water. But workers and their families are leaving. They've had it. Four quakes yesterday provided the worst. Those tremors were the earliest since July 21 quake took the lives of 13 persons.

Local Instructor Leaves for Germany To Teach for Year

Edward J. Zulak, above, teacher of German at Warren High School, has left for New York City from where he will sail for Germany to be an exchange teacher there for the ensuing school term.

Mr. Zulak is one of twenty-five teachers selected from the United States to participate in the German Teacher Interchange Program being administered by the Department of State and the U. S. Office of Education.

Mr. Zulak will depart with this group for Germany on August 1st.

sailing from New York on the SS America for Bremerhaven.

Several days of orientation will be held and conducted at the U. S. Office of Education Headquarters in Frankfurt, Germany, with the twenty-five Interchange German Teachers who are coming to the United States.

Following the orientation course, Mr. Zulak will proceed to Gumburg, Donau, Bavaria, Germany, where he has been assigned by the Department of State to teach at the Gymnasium & Oberrealschule (Language & Science School). The school term begins September 2, 1952 and ends July 15, 1953.

Mrs. Zulak plans to leave for Germany in September to join her husband for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Zulak will return to the United States in August, 1953.

BARD GETS SUPPORT OF AFL IN ELECTION

Harrisburg — Guy K. Bard, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator in the November election, today had the support of the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor. The PFL's League for Political Education gave Bard the nod after a scathing attack on U. S. Sen. Edward Martin, Republican incumbent, by James L. McDevitt, state PFL president.

Two Indian guides named Peter and Mark were baptized in Georgia's Ocmulgee River in 1540 — the first recorded baptisms in the country.

Native of Okinawa Writes Interesting Letter to County Man He Met in Service

Bud Mason, 11 Brown avenue, Clarendon, has an interesting letter from a native of Okinawa whose acquaintance he made while in the service during World War II. It conveys the information that the Okinawain has been accepted for a scholarship in United States during the term 1952-53, or more, and has been assigned to the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Mr. Mason is anxious to learn the name of any one from this immediate area who may be going to Ann Arbor this fall so that arrangements may be made for them to contact the student from Okinawa.

The student in question is Takeshi Shimabukuro. He informs the Clarendon man that after the war he returned to Shuri his "mother city" and attended the Shuri High School. After graduation he worked at Rycom Central Exchange No. 8, as interpreter for one year for the purpose of learning practical English.

In the meantime the University of Ryukyus was opened and he resigned his position, took the entrance examinations and was admitted as a freshman. When he wrote the letter early in June he was a junior, majoring in English, and he says "We can realize our international friendship very soon which was made in Okinawa."

He left for the United States on July 4th, but Mr. Mason says he has not as yet heard from him. He was coming to the States via Yokohama, Japan, and Hawaii. He expects to enter the University September 14th.

An interesting portion of his letter follows:

"By the Second World War most of the culture of my native Okinawa was destroyed and most of my companions lost their lives. It is already seven years since the war ended and I and my family were saved by you. I have to recollect your favor when I look back upon that age of war. I am waiting the day that I see you in the United States and talk of that day in Taira. Please tell me your telephone number and your present address so that I can send a letter or talk over a telephone as soon as I arrive in San Francisco. Please give my kind regards to your family and tell them of my going to study abroad to the United States."

Anyone knowing the names of students from this area planning to attend the University of Michigan this fall is requested to contact Mr. Mason at the above address, or telephone 5833-J-11.

At one time, the symbol for a grocery store in London was three bell-shaped objects representing sugar loaves, hung together.

MIDSHIPMAN VISITS NAVAL INSTALLATION

U. S. Naval Base, Philadelphia—Among the second group of Second Class (juniors) Naval Academy Midshipmen to visit here for a week's study and inspection of Naval installation and major civilian industrial plants is Louis C. (Chuck) Niederlander, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Niederlander of 108 Frank street, Warren.

The group will visit the Naval Air Material Center and see tests and experimental work involved on the specialized equipment used in modern aircraft.

Conversion and repair facilities of the Naval Shipyard for the Navy's largest ships will be inspected. The Midshipmen will receive training in fighting gasoline, oil and electrical fires common to ships and aircraft.

Visiting the Air Development Center, they will observe the newly commissioned "Human Centrifuge," a device for ascertaining the effects of high speeds and rapid acceleration on the human body.

AIRPORT IS LEASED

Oil City Council at its regular meeting last night, leased the Spine Memorial Airport to Dr. Richard R. Vankirk for a period of two years at an annual rental of $800. Councilman D. F. Logan offered the resolution for the lease, which will start August 1, 1952 and end July 31, 1954, and council approved it.

GAS WELL NEAR CONNEAUT

Natural gas rushed out of a Conneaut Township well with a deafening screech and a roar yesterday noon when the well was uncapped after being corked up for four days. But it didn't last long. The first of a series of gauge readings, taken by George Stewart, of Oil City every 15 minutes, showed gas pouring out at the daily rate of around 446,000 cubic feet. But as soon as the pent-up gas was gone, the volume started dropping and about three hours after the uncapping it was down to a daily rate of about 146,000 cubic feet.

PENNSY EARNINGS

The Pennsylvania Railroad has reported net earnings of $5,186,349 for the first half of 1952, compared to a deficit of $675,961 for the first six months of 1951. A PRR spokesman said all segments of the company's business showed increases over the six-month period, with freight revenues up $10,134,084, passenger service dollars up $6,309,345, mail revenues up $3,526,213, express up $3,156,897, and other revenues boosted by $766,745. Revenues for the month of June were reduced approximately 17 million dollars as a result of the steel strike.

CRAWFORD OPINION

Meadville Tribune - Republican Judge Allison D. Wade of Warren County yesterday handed down an opinion and ruling in a Crawford County Court case over which he presided in November, 1949. Judge Wade dismissed a motion for a new trial sought by Walter and Florence Miller, who had sued Meadville Food Service, Inc., and Fairmount Foods Co., for throat injuries allegedly sustained by Mrs. Miller from "foreign matter" in a pineapple pie wedge served to her at a local plant cafeteria. In a Common Pleas Court trial a jury had awarded the Millers $2,000, but they sought more.

Queen Is Chosen By Columbus Grange

Miss Marian Volk was chosen by members of the Columbus Grange today evening as their candidate for the potato queen contest. The meeting was held in Town hall with Master Gerald Bensink presiding and 26 members were present. A report was read from the committee in charge of painting the hall and the program for the evening was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller.

Roll call was responded to by answering the question "How I would spend my vacation if I had a million dollars," and relay games, spelling games and a question and answer contest were enjoyed later. Readings were given by Mr. and Mrs. Bensink and Mr. Miller. Plans were made at this time to hold a wiener roast on August 25th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Trisket with the regular home economics committee in charge of the arrangements.

At the close of the session Mrs. Arthur Ayling, Miss Phyllis Hill and Roger Watson served cookies and Kool-Aid to the group. The next business session will be held on August 11th and the Pomona Grange meeting will be held at Tidoute on August 7th.

Buckshot in Pants Of Bystanders As Mountaineers Feud

Bluefield, W. Va., (AP)—"Call the law, 'cause they're at it again," cried a youngster with buckshot in the seat of his pants.

"They better stop this shootin' so a man can get some sleep," complained another resident of nearby Lamar Hollow.

The indignant youngster and another neutral in the feud, a man with a peg leg, each were hit by wild shotgun pellets as the Howertons continued their argument with the Blankships, Pendergrasses and Sigmans.

L. E. King, superintendent of a coal operation and a man prominent in the community since he has the only telephone, reported last night the wounding of the pair who had no interest or connection with the feud and fussin'.

Neither was hospitalized and their hurts apparently were no more serious than the slight wounds received earlier by one of the Blankships and one of the Howertons.

And King added somewhat testily that his sleep has been broken twice in the last three nights as shots rang out in the argument over land ownership.

Authority Rushes Plans for Repairs To Columbus Dam

Corry Journal: "The Columbus Dam, if the Fish Commission is permitted to proceed with the $20,000 project which would repair it, would be almost exactly the same as before the 1947 flood which wiped it out."

This statement came from a proponent of the repair project which is now being held up by the refusal of five property owners to sign agreements permitting the work to proceed.

Indenture agreements, which have been signed and turned in by 33 of the 46 property owners involved, spell out that the dam will be basically the same as it was with the water being 15 feet at the breast.

Some of those actively associated with the project have been spending hours in clearing up the legal phases involved in the indenture agreements and as a result only 13 have not been turned in but outside of the five mentioned above no objections have been raised by any of the other property owners.

Members of the Columbus Municipal Authority are still hopeful of getting the necessary approval in time to permit the work to proceed this year.

Generally, it's understood that only two of the five property owners protesting the repair are strongly opposed to it.

"In any case," one member of the authority asserted, "the condition will not be any different than it was before when so many hundreds of people enjoyed the dam."

Corydon Cemetery Association Maps Plans for Cleanup

Corydon—Mrs. L. R. Stryker and Miss Wilma Stryker, were co-hostesses for the Corydon Ladies' aid society of the Methodist church. Routine matters of business were transacted.

Afterward a supper luncheon and social hour were enjoyed. Those present were the Rev. and Mrs. William Hills, Mrs. J. K. Crooks, Mrs. Harold Blair, Mrs. L. J. Learn, Mrs. P. E. Tome, Mrs. Bennett Putnam, Mrs. George True, Mrs. Crawford Marsh, Miss Tresa Marsh, Mrs. A. C. Dysart, Mrs. Grace Lubold and the hostesses.

Members of the Riverview cemetery association met for its July session and mapped plans for another clean-up campaign scheduled for August 5. The resignation of Nelson Crooks, president of the group since its organization was accepted.

Eugene Crooks, vice president will be acting president.

The association is to be highly commended for notable improvement in the hilltop plot.

Mrs. Walker T. Dabney, of Johnstown, Ind., has returned home after being the guest of Miss Lucia Browne.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, and children, were Saturday Bradford visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Oakley has returned to Pittsburgh following a weekend stay at the Henderson cottage.

Mrs. Grace Lubold left for Warren after visiting her sister, Mrs. L. R. Stryker.

WAVES TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Today, July 30th, marks the tenth anniversary of the WAVES.

More than 9,000 WAVES now on active duty in the continental United States, Japan, Norway, Hawaii, Germany, France, Alaska and England. celebrate the occasion.

In Washington, D. C., Captain Joy Bright Hancock, USN, Director of the WAVES, followed Naval tradition by using a sword to cut the ten-canded cake at the U. S. Naval Receiving Station.

The Secretary of the Navy, Dan A. Kimball, in paying tribute to the WAVES, said, "During a decade of service in both the Naval Reserve and the regular Navy, they have proven themselves proficient and capable. Their devotion to duty has been consistent with the highest traditions of the Naval Service. On behalf of the Navy and for myself, I offer sincere congratulations and a hearty 'Well Done'."

Since the Congress authorized the enlistment and commissioning of women in the Women Appointed for Volunteer Emergency Service as a component of the Naval Reserve, more than 110,000 women have become partners in the service of the world's greatest Navy.

The traditional Navy blue proudly worn by these women, is styled from a noble British lady's colorful riding outfit, predating the independence of America and the founding of its sea service.

Today 28 of the Navy's enlisted ratings are open to WAVES. Their duties are limited only by restrictions against serving in aircraft on combat missions, in ships other than hospital ships or transports, and in billets classified as "heavy duty."

During World War II, more than 79,000 WAVES were on duty in 900 continental shore based activities performing 450, different kinds of jobs. More than 4,000 were assigned to duty in Hawaii, the only overseas assignment open to women.

LOOKING FORWARD TO CAMPAIGN

General Eisenhower and Governor Stevenson, major party presidential nominees, are both essentially men of decent character and high motive. May we therefore look forward to a campaign free of mud slinging and wild charges? asks Bruce Blossat, NEA Service editorial writer.

Perhaps we could if the campaign were to be left wholly to the nominees themselves. Although even here there could be no flat assurance. Competing for the Senate in New York three years ago, John Foster Dulles and Senator Lehman, two high-minded men, fought like waterfront roustabouts.

But of course, the candidates will not be alone on the hustings. Each will have a host of free-swinging helpers who will feel no particular compulsion to observe the political niceties. The slugging may be severe.

Many will say that the nominees are handicapped not alone by their gentlemanly tendencies but by their closeness on many issues—especially in foreign affairs. Both are moderate middle-of-the-road men. If you scan their public utterances carefully, you find amazing similarity at many points.

Despite these basic parallels, however, a marked difference in emphasis is inevitable in the coming campaign. Stevenson perforce will have to defend the Democratic record and extol its program.

Eisenhower will be free to assail those things.

Right here is the critical area for the Republicans. Many non-party members feel 20 years is more than long enough for one party to hold power. Many are disturbed over one phase or another of Democratic rule—conduct of the Korean war, corruption in Washington, failure to halt inflation, and so on.

These people want to hear the Democrats criticized. But they want more. They want to know what positive, constructive ideas the Republicans have for doing the job better. Mere denunciation is not enough to attract legions of wavering voters.

This outcome—Eisenhower vs. Stevenson—may not make for a sharp cleavage on issues and men as some observers feel we should have. However that may be, the largest part of the voting populace, as it is read by politicians whose business it is to judge accurately, wants the kind of result Chicago produced

'Not Unusual, General... It Happens to Old Soldiers'

Here And There

Mrs. Bennie Anderson, of Kiantone, recently entertained the Lander Hill and Dale Garden Club at the Anderson cottage at Fairbanks, Farmington township. One of the highlights of the interesting afternoon was a highly enlightening talk delivered by Mrs. Anderson about the Old Domain, the Spiritualistic Camp situated in the Valley, consisting of about 500 acres of land, until it was moved to Lily Dale where it has since flourished as one of the best known assemblies of its kind in the world.

Mrs. Anderson said that 95 years ago, on the spot where the Anderson cottage now stands, there was erected a 70-room hotel, and among other buildings were another hotel of fifty rooms, and a mission school.

At that time, she said, 10,000 persons attended the camp meetings during week days, and on Sundays 20,000 persons. Many of them came from New York City, Cleveland, Boston and Philadelphia. The nearest train came to Dunkirk and from there they came to the Warren county camp by stage coach.

The Indians called the camp "the Valley of Peace" and no battles ever took place there. It was said that there was a spring which was forty feet deep and also a cave supposed to be 200 feet long and large enough to seat at least 200 people.

Several years ago one entrance was found, and two oaken doors, but no room has yet been located. "It is again Peaceful Valley," said Mrs. Anderson, "and no one would realize the past history of the place in passing along that rural road."

Terse, Tart and Timely: Erie county's corn harvest is expected to be one of the best in several years with almost all crops in the county having benefited by the combination of hot days and nights and adequate moisture. And that reminds us Otto Mattson, 10 Cedar street, plucked a ripe tomato Saturday and has Dave Levine, (Unemployment Service office) as a witness.

In the last Game Commission fiscal year, ending May 31, there were 2,142 deer reported killed within the state, in protection of property. Another of those church visitation trips is planned next Sunday by a group of members of Trinity Memorial who are planning to motor to Smithport to attend the eight o'clock service in the Episcopal church in that city. This year the successful candidate for president must have 268 or more electoral votes to win which means a minimum of 25 states, and if neither candidate secures the required number of votes the decision would fall to the House of Representatives. Lloyd Anderson, of Mioia, RD 2, was photographed recently in an Oil City paper holding a 51-inch rattlesnake he captured alive near Lickingville. Chautauqua Institution officials are hopeful of having both General Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai Stevenson, respectively GOP and Democratic nominees, at Chautauqua before the close of the season, recalling that practically every presidential nominee in the past generation has spoken from the platform there. A new attendance record was established Saturday when more than 2,600 men, women and children from fifteen counties of northwestern Pennsylvania attended the United Natural Gas Company picnic at Wildcat Park, Ludlow.

An average of 170 degrees is the proper automobile engine block water temperature.

More and More Households Hubby Not Only Brings Home Bacon But Cooks It Too

By HAL BOYLE
New York (AP) — A husband's used to be to bring home the on.
n more and more households to, however, the husband not y brings home the bacon—he ks it, too. A man's place is in kitchen.
his quiet revolution in domestic ies began about a quarter of a ous," murmured mama later, munching a sandwich.

This feminine flattery went to father's head.
"If I can do this well outdoors," he told himself, "what couldn't I do in a real kitchen?"

So he moved indoors, bought himself a cookbook, and began experimenting like a small boy with a new chemistry set. Every week end he figured out a new dish to try on his friends, and from the life of the party he became the wife of the party—the guy in the sky-blue apron.
Mama gallantly shuddered her way through his trial-and-error efforts, and told guests fondly in his presence:
"My husband is getting to be a wonderful cook, but he does leave the kitchen in such a mess."
This praise touched father's conscience.

"Why should I have all the fun of cooking and leave my wife all the dirty work?" he said. "I guess I'd better tidy up the kitchen, too."
That is what I object to about the whole theory of male cookery. The husband has been artfully convinced his wife is doing him a favor to let him into the kitchen. But what is the real truth? She has been freed of her most onerous chores through the centuries—cooking dinner, then doing the dishes.
When we go out to have dinner with friends, the host meets me at the door and says:
"Don't go into the living room with the girls. All they'll talk

Good Time Is Had By All at Annual Newell Press Picnic

With Leo Ward, owner of the Newell Press, and Mrs. Ward as host and hostess, 175 of the firm's employees, their families and invited guests enjoyed the annual picnic of Newell's which took place Saturday at Oakview Park.
Ralph Dey was general chairman of the committee, Clifford Ryberg was in charge of refreshments and Ray Lewis supervised the sports, games and contests which went to make up a day of wonderful fun for all. Carl Peterson, shop superintendent, was as usual the guiding spirit in launching plans for this annual affair.

Children and grown-ups joined in the activities with a series of games and contests, and the kiddies went wild over a treasure hunt during which they unearthed many nice prizes. Something entirely original was the flying saucer contest in which prizes were won by Doris Larson, Mildred Stack and Grace Gustafson. In the Old Oaken Bucket competition, the winners were Mrs. Robert Bessey, Joan Ruberg and Annabell Chase. Then there was an amusing patch sewing contest won by Bernice Larson and Barbara Olson and Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons. Another innovation was a Trained Seal Contest in which honors went to Frank Howe and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Simmons. The hilarious Roll the Dottle contest had John Simmons and John Hest as the champions. A guessing contest proved very popular with John Daley, Gladys Babcock and Marian Knuts as the winners.

Deb Lewis' famous catering service turned up at dinner time and proceeded to dish out a wonderful meal consisting of fruit cup, barbecued chicken, cabbage salad, fresh corn on the cob, rolls, pie and cheese and coffee.

Gifts were distributed to various winners and several boxes of stationery were presented by the Alling and Corry paper mill.

In the evening, entertainment was provided by Jimmy Baker and his traveling performers, who presented four acts of vaudeville, the Tumbling Inklers, Two Ton Babcock, Overload Nelson, the Marksman Brothers, John Oakley, Three Fingers Simmons, Eddie Blackstone Fshel and India Snake Charmer Tabbo Gustafson being among the individual acts and performers.

After round and square dancing had been enjoyed, a delicious lunch was served late in the evening consisting of sliced chicken, baked ham, rye bread, olives, celery, pickles and rolls. Music was by Jerry McCune and his orchestra with Lester Akeley calling.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Schriever, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Briggs, all of Buffalo, and Mr. and Mrs. W. LeRoy Schneek of Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward, who always are top notch host and hostess, were given enthusiastic appreciation for the annual picnic, which was even more of a success than usual.

about is baseball and politics. Stay here in the kitchen, and help me baste the mutton. I'm trying a new recipe—very exciting. You wrap it in burlap and muddock leaves and cook it over a slow fire".

To Stay Different

To the Editor:
Joe Marsh, the pipe-smoking mouthpiece of the United States Brewers Foundation, in the May 20, 1952, issue of the Dinuba (Calif.) Sentinel, tells about a man he calls Duke Thomas who won the prize at a cake-baking contest. Then he goes on:
"From where I sit, we all have different abilities and tastes, and these differences are sometimes surprising. Duke bakes prize-winning cakes. My wife, for example, can beat most any man at checkers. Same when it comes to beverages—you may like coffee or tea while I prefer a refreshing glass of beer. But let's not have any 'half-baked' ideas that people are all the same—or should be."

I have yet to find out what there is refreshing about a glass of beer. And, as far as I'm concerned, I can stand people's "sameness" a lot better than I can the difference beer makes in them. Come to think of it, though, there is a lot more difference among you humans before you drink beer than there is afterward. Fill you up on beer and you're all pretty much alike—and that's not pretty, either.
So, if Joe wants people to stay different, he ought to tell 'em to stay away from beer. Right?

RAGS"
Milwaukee, Wis.—The Miller Brewing Company has initiated a new series of ads in high-fashion magazines, beginning with a double-spread, four-color bleed advertisement in the May 15 issue of Vogue and the June issue of Harper's Bazaar. The decision to go into Vogue resulted from a meeting among Frederick C. Miller, brewery president; Vernon S. Mullen, Jr., Miller advertising manager; and G. A. Mathison, president of Mathison & Associates, Inc., Miller's ad agency. It was felt that advertising in fashion publications was in line with the brewery's policy of presenting Miller High Life in a "prestige" manner.

Will you leave these to your children?

Men have died to leave you these 4 symbols of freedom:

A Holy Bible—symbol of your right to worship as you wish.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A door key—your right to lock your door against illegal government force and prying.
(Fourth Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A pencil—freedom to speak or write what you think, whether you agree with the government or not.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

And a free ballot—your right to choose the people who represent you in government—your protection against government tyranny.
(Article I, U. S. Constitution)

"The government should take over the doctors," they say, "and run the railroads, and the electric companies." But what they mean is, "Let's have socialized medicine, socialized railroads, socialized electricity."

Even though socialism is one thing most Americans don't want!

It is wise for us always to question and weigh the forces that influence our government. It's up to us all whether we'll leave our children freedom—or socialism.

Socialized electric light and power is one of the first goals of the people who want to push America down the hill to socialism. They've made headway, and are working for more. Each step they gain is a serious threat to every business—and everybody's freedom. That's why we feel it's important to bring you this message.

HALF the world is trying to destroy these symbols—and what they stand for.

Even in this country, there are people who attack our freedoms, by trying to give the government more and more control over American life.

Hill and Dale Club Has An Enjoyable Outing

Lander—The Hill and Dale Garden club held their annual picnic at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Bessie Anderson at Farbanks, Farmington township with 19 members and several guests present.

After a picnic dinner at 1:00 o'clock, a business session was held with Mrs. Andrew Landell reported having met with representatives of the other county garden clubs at Youngsville and it was voted to have two county meetings a year, the next one being at Tidoute in October, each club to arrange their program for the meeting they entertain.

It was voted to have an evening meeting in September with husbands as guest in honor of the Charter members of the club with Mrs. Harry Ludwick and Mrs. Francis Doud as chairmen. It was decided to let the exhibition committee arrange an exhibit at the flower show in Warren, September 5 if possible.

Mrs. Ernest Peterson was reported improving.

A rising vote of thanks was given the hostess and Mrs. Michelson for their hospitality.

WENZEL REUNION

The fortieth annual reunion of the descendants of Henry and Salome Kashner Wenzel was held at Island Park, Youngsville on Sunday, July 27th, with an attendance of sixty-six.

At 3:30 a delicious tureen dinner was served after which a social afternoon was enjoyed, with visiting by the older folks, a ball game and roller skating by the younger folks, while the kiddies enjoyed the swings, slides, etc.

During the business meeting the following officers were elected: President, Richard Wenzel; vice-president, Elmer Wenzel; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Miller. There were no deaths reported since the last reunion. The following births and marriages were reported: A daughter, Michelle Jeanne, to Mr. and Mrs. William Lovell (Jeanne Leonhart) October 19, 1951; a son,

Washable Fabric Exciting News

By GAILE DUGAS, NEA Woman's Editor DuPont Co.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Ever think the day would come when you'd wash out a coat at night, hang it up to dry and find it looking like new and ready to wear the next morning? That day is here. A pastel coat with no cleaning bills attached has been the dream of many women for many years. The dream is an actuality now, made possible by fluffy orlon fleece that is completely and beautifully washable. It takes to the suds at night, just as your nylons do, goes on a hanger for drying and is ready for wearing when you get up in the morning. And, of course, it needs no ironing. It's shown (left) in white, with pointed collar, turn-back cuffs adjustable to any sleeve length and pretty but unexaggerated fullness. A Leeds design, it's the kind of coat, in short, that you can wear and wear without fear of grime or smudges. In addition to the white, it's done in pale blue, maize and beige. Equally practical is Main Street's nylon seersucker coat (right) that's a feather-light rain duster. Point for summer travelers is that it takes only a corner in a suit case. It has mandarin collar and deep turn-back cuffs. The practical hood is detachable.

Warren Artist To Show Paintings At Exhibit in Hotel at Chautauqua

An art exhibit is being planned to show the paintings of Maritza Morgan at Chautauqua, N. Y. The exhibit is to be held at the St. Elmo Hotel, will run through the week of August 10th and will include some of the artist's most recent canvases.

Mrs. Morgan, born in Yugoslavia and educated in Europe and the United States, received her art training in Paris, Liverpool, Toronto and New York; most recently at the Art Students' League in Manhattan.

Wife of Dr. Norman C. Morgan, star member of the Warren State Hospital, and mother of four young children, Mrs. Morgan still finds time to design and paint sets for little theatre groups including the Warren Players, in addition to her full time position as art supervisor of Conewango township and conducting classes in art in the schools in North Warren and Star Brick.

Mrs. Morgan is frequently called upon to lecture on the various aspects of her vocation and very recently talked in Jamestown, N. Y., to a state-wide federation of little theatres.

Although her works are on exhibit in Hanover, New Hampshire, Chicago, Seattle, Washington and New York, this will be the first exhibit of its size in this area. Mrs. Morgan plans to hang twenty-four paintings, some of which will be for sale.

Spinsters Waste Their Time On Confirmed Bachelors

THE Bachelor's Society of America recently held their first annual convention. According to a news item, the bachelors, between meetings, were "wined, dined and eagerly eyed by local and visiting spinsters."

The spinsters were probably wasting their time. Chances are that the man who takes his bachelor state seriously enough to join an organization of bachelors is too wary for a girl to capture.

Chances are that he has already arrived at the state where he regards bachelorhood as a definite mark of distinction.

That isn't too difficult a state for a bachelor to reach. After he has been successful at dodging matrimony a few times he is likely to be convinced he is a smarter fellow than the men who end up saying, "I do."

WIVES KEEP IDEA ALIVE

MARRIED women help more than anyone else to foster that notion. The bachelor is such a boon to married women.

He can be called on as an extra man at a party. His mildest compliments can easily convince a married woman that she is really quite a girl.

So married women set great store by bachelors. They wine and dine them and ask for nothing in return.

They make social lions out of eligible bachelors and by the time a man has a good taste of being so all-fired important, simply because he doesn't have a wife, he has become a wary bachelor.

Why should he give up his claim to distinction and become just another married man?

By the time he has become that fond of his bachelorhood he's hard to catch.

Time and experience have made him as wary as the big fish fishermen are always seeing but are seldom able to land.

New Pleasantville Joint School Board Has First Election

The new Pleasantville Joint Board for the school system of Pleasantville borough and Allegheny, Oilcreek and Southwest townships—all in Venango County except the last named, which is in Warren—was organized at a meeting last night in the borough's high school building.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Gordon A. Ogle, who is also president of the Pleasantville board;

First vice president, Blaine Luke, a member of the Southwest board;

Second vice president, Stanley C. Bayless, Jr., a member of the Oilcreek board;

Secretary, Oscar Carson, who is also secretary of the Allegheny board;

Treasurer, J. M. Bailey, also treasurer of the Pleasantville board.

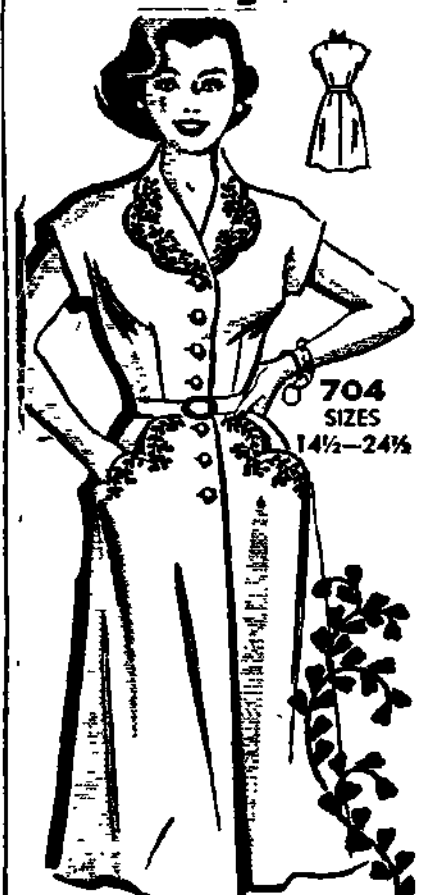

The joint board consists of 20 members.

Mrs. Lois Benedict was temporary chairman while the new officers were selected.

William D. Igoe, Pleasantville's supervising principal, submitted a school calendar for the joint district which was approved. It calls for school to start next Sept. 3 and close on June 4, 1953.

Mr. Igoe announced that a pre-school clinic, for beginners who will start this fall, will be held in the next two or three weeks.

NEW ASSIGNMENT FOR LOCAL BOY IN JAPAN

Otsu, Japan—Sgt. William D. Turner, whose wife, Virginia, lives at 162 Santa Fe Avenue, Richmond, Calif., was recently assigned to Headquarters Company, Southwestern Command. Largest of the three commands in the Japanese islands, Southwestern Command has the mission of furnishing supplies and services to troops in Korea and U. S. Forces in Japan.

Upon his arrival in the Far East Command in March 1951, Sergeant Turner was assigned duties as an administrative non-commissioned officer with the Special Service Hotel Detachment in Miyazaki, Japan. He is now serving as chief clerk, Safety Section, Southwestern Command.

Sergeant Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Turner, 231 Onondaga avenue, Warren, Pa., is a former student of St. Francis High School. His brother, Frederick, is a communications sergeant with a unit in Korea.

Strange Light In Sky Arouses People Around Centerville

Titusville Herald: A white light which gradually grew in size blazed across the night sky over the Centerville area last night about 10:15 o'clock. About 14 adults at Gibson Ridge watched the mysterious sky visitor make about 40 passes before it disappeared.

A Saegertown area resident also saw a flying object about the same time. G. R. Bowersox of Saegertown, Route 1, said it had three rays of white light which revolved and emitted sparks.

It crossed the sky from west to east slowly, circled about and then streaked fast for the west again. This maneuver was repeated for more than 15 minutes.

The witnesses at first thought the light was a beacon. But it acted too odd for that.

The path of light it cut across the sky lengthened each time. The bright light was about a foot across when they first saw it. Then it gradually got larger until it was about a yard long or more.

Emerson Stokes of Titusville, Star Route, said "it was as big as a dishpan at first."

"On its way back each time it left a light streak behind it," he declared.

JURORS EXCUSED
Because there are not enough cases to warrant a jury, notices excusing petit jurors from the August 11 session of court were put in the mail today, it was learned from the Sheriff's office at the Court House this morning. Members of the grand jury have already been notified of the cancellation of the August 4 session.

PLAN FIREMEN'S PARADE
We are in receipt of a letter from the Jamestown Fire Department and the Jamestown Fire Department Association, Inc., calling attention to plans for a Fire Prevention Week parade which will climax National Fire Prevention Week in that area. They invite all drum corps, bands, fire-fighting units, veteran and non-veteran units to participate in the parade to be held at six o'clock October 11th. $1,000 in prizes will be distributed. Any groups interested should write Captain Martin Hagstrom, Fire Chief's Office, City Hall, Jamestown, N. Y. Prize lists and details will be mailed.

PROBE ARSON THEORY
Corry Journal: Corry police and Fire Chief Ray Laurie today were investigating the possibility of arson as the cause of a blaze which, if undiscovered, might have wiped out a sizeable section of the business district early Sunday morning. While authorities admitted they had little definite information with which to prosecute a charge of arson, they pointed out there were several suspicious factors involved. Firemen first became wary when they arrived at the scene of the blaze, the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan over the Loblaw grocery store, at 1:50 a. m. Sunday and were met by William Shields, 27, of 517 South Center street. Shields, according to firemen, said they were not needed and there were "four or five men taking care of the fire." Firemen at the time could see smoke seeping from the windows.

STEEL PLANT RUMORED
Rumors prevail in Erie that the U. S. Steel Corp. is planning an extensive plant construction in Springfield Township. There has been no official announcement of such a development, however. U. S. Steel Corp. holds 3,173 acres of land in the west county township, stretching a mile and a half from the Ohio border and from Lake Erie to Route 20. It also as extensive holdings across the border in Ohio. Reports had it that "Big Steel" intends to construct a large steel mill to process Canadian iron ore recently developed across the lake or a plant connected with atomic energy production. U. S. Steel Corp., did recently reveal a new iron ore development in the vicinity of Port Dover, Ont., just across the lake. Announcement of the development was kept under cover for more than a year while agents bought up the land.

Norman Van Ord Is Given Tryout With Jamestown Today

Norman Van Ord, Lander, will work out with the Jamestown Falcons, PONY League leaders, when they hold practice at five o'clock this afternoon.

According to Ray Peebles, general manager of the club, a Detroit scout has informed him that he was sending a catcher to the practice to see what he could do. Relatives of young Van Ord told the Times-Mirror the scout was holding a contract until August.

Norm, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Agidius Van Ord, is a graduate of Sugar Grove-Farmington Joint School in the class of 1952 and has been catching for the Sinclairville, N. Y., semi-pro team for two years.

LEWIS CONTACTING SOFT COAL WORKERS

Washington (AP)—John L. Lewis reportedly has begun talks with a major part of the soft coal industry, probably to lay the groundwork for full-scale contract negotiations.

An informed source, who is in touch with the situation but declined use of his name, said today Lewis had the first conference with the industry yesterday.

BIG STEEL OUTPUT NEEDED BY DEFENSE

Washington (AP)—The Pentagon expects defense production to take double its normal share of the nation's steel output during the next six months.

An official handling military production problems said this will necessarily mean less steel, temporarily, for civilian use, and a return in part to the system of wartime priorities for military production.

He said the nation lost 20 million tons of steel output during the 34 days of recent strike.

FINE TO ADDRESS CONVENTION OF VFW

Harrisburg (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine will address the annual convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars meeting Aug. 3-8 in Los Angeles.

The governor's office said he would leave Pittsburgh today and may make a number of stops before reaching the West Coast.

Fine was in Pittsburgh to address a state police chiefs' convention.

Kiddies Escape As Canopy From Plane Falls Near Swing

Pittsburgh (AP)—Other cities can talk about flying saucers, but Pittsburgh reports a flying canopy. And it landed—not more than three feet from where several children had been playing minutes before.

Frank King, painting a house in the Carrick District, saw a plexiglass canopy tear off a two-engine plane flying overhead and zoom earthward.

He yelled a warning to his brother, Al, who scrambled down from a ladder just as the 3 by 4 object, weighing about 15 pounds, crashed near a children's swing.

Said Frank: "I've been reading so much about flying saucers I thought one was dropping in my lap."

A gust of wind had ripped the canopy from a former Army A-26 attack bomber now owned by Meta Machine Co. The plane landed safely.

SEGREGATION IN CITY HOUSING IS PROTESTED

Harrisburg (AP)—The Dauphin County Court today considered a petition for an injunction designed to stop the Harrisburg Housing Authority from segregating whites and negroes in the city's public housing units.

The petition for a preliminary injunction was filed yesterday by Lewis Adler, attorney for Earl Fields, a Negro veteran. The petition said that Fields was denied an application for rental of a housing unit in the John A. F. Hall Manor Homes, a public housing project for white occupancy.

BEAVER OFFICIAL IS HEART VICTIM

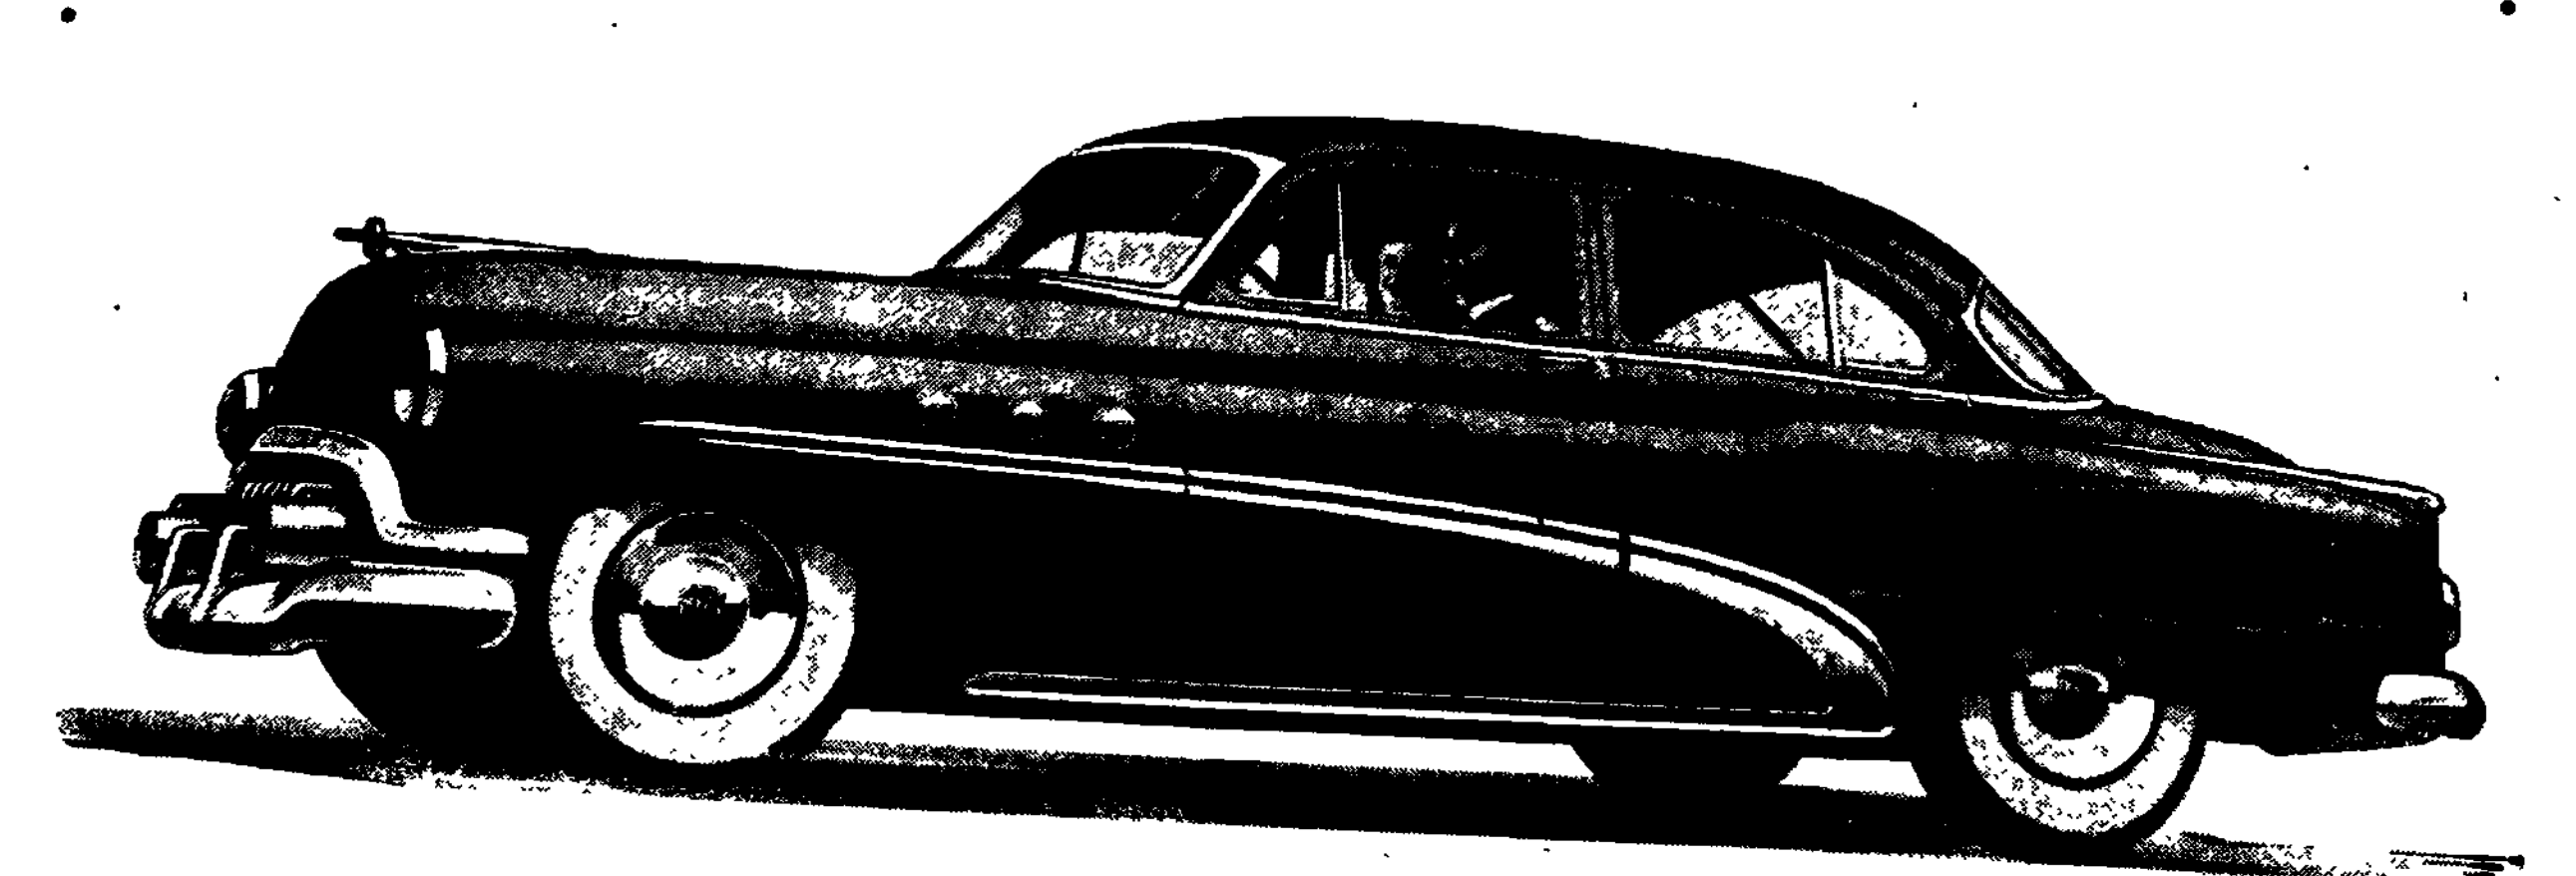

New Brighton, Pa. (AP)—Thomas D. Gilkey, 64, Beaver County Commissioner for more than 10 years, died last night in Beaver Valley General Hospital. He was stricken by a heart attack 10 days ago.

He was appointed a Democratic member of the Board of Commissioners in 1941 and won re-election. His present term would have expired in 1956.

BIG BANG for the Bored Car Owner

Have you ever driven a Buick SPECIAL?

Do you know how it feels to touch off the most powerful engine you'll find in any car of its pounds and price?

Do you know that it almost steers itself—holds its course like an airliner on the beam—even comes back on course after taking a turn?

Do you know that there's siiken magic in its Dynaflo Drive*?

Do you know how many miles it can get from a gallon of gas?

Do you know that it has a Million Dollar Ride?

Mister, if you haven't found out such things, you're missing a lot of fun every mile you drive.

You're missing the fun of bossing around a big hoodful of high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine.

You're missing the fun—and comfort—of riding on four big, soft, easy-acting coil springs.

You're missing the fun of feeling daisy-fresh with half-a-thousand thrilling miles behind you.

You're missing, in short, the fun of owning a Buick.

And it's nobody's fault but yours because—at the prices we're asking for this beauty—you can afford a Buick if you can afford any new car.

How about checking up on what you've been missing?

HELL'S HORSEMAN

BY WILLIAM HOPSON

Chapter 15

MONTANA got to his feet and ran toward his mount, trying to jam more cartridges into the magazine. He got in two, heard Black Jack Caswell's stentorian roar come floating over the elbow-shaped ridge beyond the turn.

"Cut up over the hump and get him from behind," he was bellowing. "Hurry before them two women get away."

Montana, leaping at the now suddenly plunging gelding, was conscious of a sense of relief. His plan had worked. Black Jack thought the girls had gone on down the gully while he remained to hold off the others. A bound carried him up and he looped off down the gully again, ducking from sight in the timber.

But his luck was not to hold. From somewhere back behind, the remainder of the re-grouped riders had taken up the pursuit and were firing wildly through the trees. One of those shots found its mark. The bullet drove in through its right flank and seemed to explode the gallant heart of the animal Montana rode. It stumbled first and then a cry that was almost human came from its throat. That cry was a warning as it went down. Montana went over its head and rolled over and over, regaining his feet, dazed and wobbly.

Montana glanced down through the timber. His attackers were running by, unaware that a chance shot had dismounted him. A look at his repeater showed a muzzle choked with dirt. The weapon was temporarily useless. He ran staggering along the tree-studded incline of the gully, backbrush grabbing at his legs. Limbs slashed at his face. He climbed higher and finally fell panting back of a rotten log.

Hoofoats sounded from somewhere down below. More followed and they came from opposite directions. He heard them pull up together.

"See anything of him?" yelled a voice.

"Nothing. He just disappeared in thin air."

The next voice belonged to Ro Runder. "He's got to be around here somewhere," the Road Runner said. "We'd have heard his horse otherwise. Get in that timber all around here and flush him out!"

"You don't say," came in a jeering reply. "Listen, Ro, if you'da plugged him back in the junction while he was in that saloon, this wouldn'ta happened. Black Jack is going to be plenty riled at you over this mess. You wait and see. And if you're so all-fired anxious to get him, then go hunt him all by yore purty little self. I'm gon' back up and see what Black Jack says."

A YELL came then, from far up the gully. Montana heard it plainly, his panting subsided, and the words shot cold fear into his heart.

"Hey, Dutch! Oh... Dutch! Send somebody out to round up the boys and come over here pronto. Two of these hoss tracks lead off up the ridge. We've split 'em up! The two wimmen went this way. Come on, you men—we've got those two wimmen. They'll never get more'n three miles."

It was true. The two girls wouldn't have a chance now. They would be run down and caught.

And Montana was alone, afoot in outlaw country, where probably a dozen outlaws would soon be combing the country to shoot him on sight; for if the girls were caught, his identity as the man who had shot it out with Black Jack's men at Buckner's would definitely be established.

Montana sat down on the log and unloaded the repeater, cleaning out the barrel as best he could. Quickly he reloaded and then began creeping through the timber, back to where the fight first had taken place. It was quiet now and he saw no signs of men about. He came to the place where the girls had gone up and looked down upon the scene below. No emotion bothered him as he saw the sprawled figures of the men he had killed, but his lips thinned as he saw the saddles. Caswell had ordered the horses of the dead men unsaddled and turned loose, out of reach of man or foot.

"They've gone, I reckon," Montana said slowly. "They'll get the girls first, or try to. Then they'll come back, figuring I can't get very far on foot."

Nor could he, but a man could try. He set off in the direction of the stage.

It took him more than an hour to cover the distance that the running horses had made in what now seemed minutes. But the hopes that had risen so high now fell flat as he saw only emptiness where the other stage mounts had been. They either had broken loose at the first shooting or the wily Black Jack had sensed Montana's plans and sent a man back.

It didn't matter. They were gone.

Orndorf lay sprawled in death where he had fallen. Saunders had shot him through the side of the neck. Montana strode past him and went to the place where the fire had been. The coals were still faintly warm and the food lay untouched except for a little unsuccessful pecking by the birds. He sat down and ate the cold food, fixing up some of the biscuits and bacon to carry with him.

Then he rose and headed due west again, toward Buckner's Crossing fifteen miles away.

BREWERY EMPLOYEES TO PONDER NEW PLAN

Pittsburgh (AP)—Striking CIO brewery workers meet tomorrow to decide whether to accept a new offer and end a three-month-old walkout at three big Pittsburgh breweries.

Terms of the proposed pact, worked out within the past week at union-management talks, were not revealed. Neither was present wage rates nor union demands. The 2,100 strikers, members of three local unions, are employed by Fort Pitt, Pittsburgh and Duquesne Brewing Companies.

QUESTION COMPANION IN SLAYING OF GIRL

Atlantic City, N. J. (AP)—A 42-year-old man—one of the last persons reported to have seen a young stenographer before she was beaten to death—was held today by police who said that no definite new lead has been developed in the case.

David R. Brone, assistant Atlantic County prosecutor, said yesterday that the man, Irvin Dweck, could not be referred to as a suspect in the slaying of 24-year-old Mary Dreisbach of Hokendauqua, Pa.

MONTANA got to his feet and ran toward his mount, trying to jam more cartridges into the magazine. He got in two, heard Black Jack Caswell's stentorian roar come floating over the elbow-shaped ridge beyond the turn.

"Cut up over the hump and get him from behind," he was shouting first and then a cry that two women get away.

Montana, leaping at the now suddenly plunging gelding, was conscious of a sense of relief. His plan had worked. Black Jack thought the girls had gone on down the gully while he remained to hold off the others. A bound carried him up and he leaped off down the gully again, ducking from sight in the timber.

But his luck was not to hold. From somewhere back behind, the remainder of the re-grouped riders had taken up the pursuit and were firing wildly through the trees. One of those shots found its mark. The bullet drove in through its right flank and seemed to explode the gallant heart of the animal. Montana rode. It was almost human came from its throat. That cry was a warning as it went down. Montana went over its head and rolled over and over, regaining his feet, dazed and wobbly.

Montana glanced down through the timber. His attackers were running by, unaware that a chance shot had dismounted him. A look at his repeater showed a muzzle choked with dirt. The weapon was temporarily useless. He ran staggering along the tree-studded incline of the gully, backbrush grabbing at his legs. Limbs slashed at his face. He climbed higher and finally fell panting back of a rotten log.

Hoofbeats sounded from somewhere down below. More followed and they came from opposite directions. He heard them pull up together.

"See anything of him?" yelled a voice.

"Nothing. He just disappeared in thin air."

The next voice belonged to Ro Runder. "He's got to be around here somewhere," the Road Runner said. "We'd have heard his horse otherwise. Get in that timber all around here and flush him out!"

"You don't say," came in a jeering reply. "Listen, Ro, if you'd plugged him back in the junction while he was in that saloon, this wouldn'ta happened. Black Jack is going to be plenty riled at you over this mess. You wait and see. And if you're so all-fired anxious to get him, then go hunt him all by yore purty little self. I'm goin' back up and see what Black Jack says."

A YELL came then, from far up the gully. Montana heard it plainly, his panting subsided, and the words shot cold fear into his heart.

"Hey, Dutch! Oh... Dutch! Send somebody out to round up the boys and come over here pronto. Two of these hoss tracks lead off up the ridge. We've split 'em up! The two wimmin went this way. Come on, you men—we've got those two wimmin. They'll never get more'n three miles."

It was true. The two girls wouldn't have a chance now. They would be run down and caught.

And Montana was alone, at foot in outlaw country, where probably a dozen outlaws would soon be combing the country to shoot him on sight; for if the girls were caught, his identity as the man who had shot it out with Black Jack's men at Buckner's would definitely be established.

BREWERY EMPLOYEES TO PONDER NEW PLAN

Pittsburgh (AP)—Striking CIO brewery workers meet tomorrow to decide whether to accept a new offer and end a three-month-old walkout at three big Pittsburgh breweries.

Terms of the proposed pact, worked out within the past week at union-management talks, were not revealed. Neither was present wage rates nor union demands. The 2,100 strikers, members of three local unions, are employed by Fort Pitt, Pittsburgh and Duquesne Brewing Companies.

QUESTION COMPANION IN SLAYING OF GIRL

Atlantic City, N. J. (AP)—A 42-year-old man—one of the last persons reported to have seen a young stenographer before she was beaten to death—was held today by police who said that no definite new lead has been developed in the case.

David R. Brone, assistant Atlantic County prosecutor, said yesterday that the man, Irvin Dweck, could not be referred to as a suspect in the slaying of 24-year-old Mary Dreisbach of Hokendauqua, Pa.

Redbirds Battle On, Hoping for Miracle That Could Happen

By JOE REICHLER
Sports Writer

Can lightning strike twice for Stanky? Will it be the Miracle of the Mound City of 1932 just as it was the Miracle of Coogan's Bluff in 1931?

Who can ever forget the '31 pennant race in which the Giants, sparked by Stanky, rose from a 13½ game deficit on Aug. 11 to nose out the Dodgers for the pennant in a playoff? With that in mind, it would be hazardous to discount the third place Cardinals because they trail the pace-setting Dodgers by 8½ games with 57 more to go.

Despite the terrific odds and the two clubs ahead of them, the Redbirds battle on, hoping for that second miracle. They had to struggle through 13 innings last night before they finally downed the Braves in Boston, 6-5 to pick up a full game on the Dodgers and Giants.

Murry Dickson gained the honor of becoming the first Pittsburgh pitcher to defeat Brooklyn this season ending a 13-game losing streak over the Pirates with an eight-hit 7-1 triumph. Rookie Warren Hacker, with the help of veteran Dutch Leonard, gained his ninth triumph as the Chicago Cubs defeated the Giants, 4-2. Philadelphia's Phillies continued their blistering pace, sweeping a two-night twin bill from Cincinnati, 6-1 and 4-3. Mickey Mantle's grand slam home run with two out in the ninth inning gave the New York Yankees a thrilling uphill 10-8 triumph over the Chicago White Sox and enabled them to retain their three-game first place margin over Cleveland. The Indians whipped Boston, 4-1 to drop the Red Sox 4½ games off the pace.

The St. Louis Browns won their sixth game in seven starts as Ned Garver and Earl Harriet pitched a 7-3 decision over Spec Shea and the Washington Senators. Philadelphia and Detroit split a double header, the Tigers rallying to win the second game, 10-8 after Harry Byrd had hurled the Athletics to a 5-0 shutout victory in the opener.

Penn-York League Sets August 10 As Date for Play-offs

With President "Rabbit" Swanson of Warren presiding, the Penn-York Semi-Pro Baseball League met in Jamestown last evening and set August 10 as the date for the league's six-team playoff semi-finals.

The two-of-three game finals between the two teams surviving the semi-finals will be started on August 24. The semi-final sudden death one-game series will be staged by the first-place and fifth place teams, second and sixth, and third and fourth.

Included in these playoffs will be Marlin Rockwell, who uses the State Hospital as their home field, and Kinzua.

CLASSIFIED ADS accepted until 11 a. m. on day of publication.

Sunset League Will Start Make-ups On Two Fields Tonight

The Sunset Baseball League starts make-up play tonight with two games scheduled to get started at 6:30.

In the four team circuit the Warren Business School (2-4) will play host to the Warren Merchants (4-2) on the State Hospital diamond, and at Wilder Field the Youngville Merchants (4-2) will have the Elks (2-4) as their guests. Both of the leading Merchant teams are favored in tonight's frays, but will be bound to break their deadlock next Monday when they meet each other on War Memorial Field.

14-Year-Old Catches 9½ Lb. Brown Trout

Waynesboro, Pa. (P) — Fourteen-year-old Dale Jones of Waynesboro today displayed a 9½ pound brown trout—one of the largest ever caught in Franklin county.

Dale hooked the 27½-inch beauty, measuring 17 inches around its middle, yesterday in the nearby little Antietam Creek, two days before the end of trout season. The largest trout ever caught in Pennsylvania—a 27-pound monster—hangs in the office of C. A. French, State Fish Commissioner.

Jamestown Defeats Batavia Team, 2 to 1

By The Associated Press
What took place in Olean's 4th inning last night at Hornell could only have happened against a team called the Dodgers.

Hornell pitcher John Williams started episode when he protested a steal of home by a Yankee speedster.

He wound up for his next pitch and another Olean runner streaked across the plate. There went Williams' three-hitter.

Olean's Jim Coates, league strikeout king, scattered three singles as he sent the baby Brooks down to their 8th defeat in their last 10 games, 4-1.

Hamilton's Bobby Umfleet personally paid for Hornell's ticket into third place when he recorded his 16th win of the year, a 2-1 victory over Bradford. Hamilton leads Hornell by a game, trails Jamestown by two.

The Jamestown Falcons continued their steady ways by racking up a 2-1 win against the Batavia Clippers.

Wellsville defeated Corning, 5-3.

Hook Fans 22 Men, Has Homer, 2-Hitter, Triple and a Single

Warren's dream of the softball world, Phil Hook, took things in his own hands last night in the Industrial circuit, as Thomas Coupling remained unbeaten in the second-half with a 12-1 victory over Emblem Oil at the State Hospital.

Young Hook hurled a two-hitter, fanned 22 men, and topped the Thomas' batting order by tagging a home run, a triple and a single. Kifer and Esterbrook shared the mound duty for the cellar-dwelling Emblem ten and gave up 14 hits between them.

The league leaders combined their efforts for eight runs in the first three frames and added four more in the ninth for good measure. The losers lone tally came in the fourth.

Colored American League Will Play Game in Jamestown

Jamestown (Special)—Baseball of Major League caliber will be brought to area fans next Saturday night when the Negro American League swings one of its loop contests into Municipal Stadium here.

The game will pit the Chicago Giants against the Indianapolis Clowns. Game time is 8 o'clock and the regular prices charged for Jamestown's PONY League games will prevail.

The American League has for several years made a policy of taking a limited number of its games to fans in various parts of the country. The Jamestown appearance will mark the first time the circuit has scheduled a contest here.

Tickets for the game are on sale at The Humidor in Jamestown.

Esso Extra Gasoline

Many motorists believe that all good gasolines are generally pretty much alike. But here are the facts as proved by industry-accepted road and laboratory tests!

Esso Extra gives you a remarkable combination of qualities that will improve the all-year, all-around performance of 9 out of 10 cars on the road.

We believe a trial will prove to you Esso

Extra delivers results no other gasoline can—in full power, long mileage, high anti-knock, quick starting, fast engine warm-up, and protection against vapor-lock stalling.

And while you're at your Esso Dealer's, there's certainly no better time to let him give your car a complete lubrication and careful check-up for the hot weather driving you'll be doing.

* Esso Extra Gasoline is good for ALL cars, but in 9 out of 10 it will give better all-around performance all year 'round than any other gasoline. Only a car with an engine that's poorly adjusted, badly worn, or one with unusual compression characteristics may be unable to use fully the many extra qualities of this great gasoline. See your nearby Esso Dealer today!

PRACTICAL ASPECTS OF FUND OWNERSHIP... SIMPLICITY.

One Fund certificate represents ownership in many different securities. Four dividend checks distribute to shareholders the income and profits collected throughout the year from these securities. The Fund provides a diversified investment on a practical and economical basis... it relieves the shareholder from handling many difficult and detailed investment problems such as--

Investment studies and making decisions
Purchase and sales securities
Exercising rights and proxies, etc.
Collection of income from many sources
Extensive record keeping for tax and other purposes

Shares of the Fund make convenient and suitable gifts for children and others... they provide, in the form of a comprehensive investment program, a backlog for educational or other purposes... such gifts usually result in family tax savings. Ownership of Fund shares simplify estate problems... investment management continues throughout administration... there is only one certificate to sell or transfer.

In both cases, identical gifts or estate distributions may easily be made to several individuals... each individual receives a diversified investment account in one certificate and under continuous management.

Many Aroused By Strange Object In The Sky Over Kane

Kane Republican: As jets whined into the air over Washington, D. C., in search of unidentified objects—Kane residents, at least a half-hundred of them were pondering a sight in the skies over the Hilltop Saturday morning—a huge cylinder-like object which hovered over the air at about 2,000 feet altitude for an hour—possibly more.

The object was sighted by a carload of workers headed from Kane to the Dresser Mfg. Division plant in Bradford. They stopped and watched it. Not willing to be stuck with a story on their own, they flagged other cars and soon a long line of cars was at the roadside on Route 6 a few miles east of Kane—and fully a half-hundred persons viewed the "thing."

The men had to get to work and proceeded east on Route 6—keeping an eye aloft at the object. When they reached Lantz Corners, eight miles east, they could still see the object—which then looked about "two feet" in length. Estimates from original observations indicated the object from 100 to 200 feet in length. Estimates from original observations indicated the object from 100 to 200 feet in length. One observer said "it looked like a canoe—with a couple guys in it." Others agreed. Early morning light, clear skies, and absence of wind in a dead calm, seemed to make the object stationary in the skies. From description of the object, it was believed to have been a large weather balloon.

One observer, a scuffer on "flying saucers" and other mysterious objects in the skies said "I'll believe anything now" but I wouldn't have believed what I saw if the others had not seen it too. He said the way cars were stopping on the highway that scores of persons must have seen it and watched its progress.

Americans to Play Against Brazil In Today's Basketball

Helsinki (AP)—Continuing the record-a-day or better pace of the 1952 Olympic swimming competition, the United States women's 400 meter relay team shattered the Olympic record in winning its trial heat today.

The American quartet of Evelyn Kawamoto of Hawaii and Jacqueline Lavine, Marilee Stepan and Joan Alderagn, all of Chicago, was timed in 4:28.1 in beating Holland in its heat. This broke the Olympic mark of 4:29.2 set by another American team in the 1948 Olympics at London and was more than four seconds faster than Hungary's time in winning the other qualifying heat.

Eight teams qualified for the final Friday.

Three United States men swimmers had little trouble qualifying for the second round of the men's 100-meter backstroke and, in rather unexpected performances, the American water polo team won its first game of the semifinal round competition. American fencers marked up a decisive victory in a semifinal competition in the team sabre event.

Argentina's basketball team, regarded as the most serious threat to the U. S., suffered its first defeat of the tournament.

Yoshinobu Oyakawa of Honolulu and Ohio State University turned in the best time in the men's backstroke swim, one minute and six seconds. Jack Taylor of Akron, Ohio, another Ohio State swimmer, also won his heat but Allen Stack of Hingham, Mass., and Yale, finished second.

America's hopes in the women's springboard diving competition received a setback when an international jury over-ruled the judges who granted Mrs. Zoe Ann Olsen Jensen a second chance to perform one dive after she had complained the mechanism controlling the board had not functioned properly.

That reduced her total by nine points and put her in eighth place among the qualifiers for this afternoon's free diving competition.

Mrs. Patricia McCormick of Long Beach, Calif., leads the divers.

The American water polo team from El Segundo, Calif., which reached the semifinal eight-team bracket with difficulty, surprised Belgium, 4 to 2. The sabre fencers handed Poland a 10 to 6 setback.

The big doings for the Americans come this afternoon when the basketball team meets Brazil in its last game of the semifinal round-robin; the boxers get back into action in the second round and three fencers go after the gold medal and a possible new record in the final of the 400 meter freestyle.

The United States so far has won all three of the men's swimming and diving events.

The Russians added 12 points to

Saxton Is Favored Over Virgil Akins

Chicago (AP)—Undeclared Johnny Saxton, New York left hook specialist, rules a 7-5 favorite over Virgil Akins of St. Louis, No. 3 lightweight contender, in their 10 round match tonight at Chicago Stadium.

Saxton, outweighting Akins 146 to 141, will be aiming for his 31st straight victory in a bid for a crack at Kid Gavilan's writer-weight crown or at least a scrap with such top-rated contenders as Chuck Davey and Gil Turner.

The bout will be televised nationally starting at 9 p. m. (EST).

GERI WON'T ACCEPT STEELER PAY CUT

Olean, N. Y. (AP)—Coach Joe Bach of the Pittsburgh Steelers, definitely committed to going without halfback Joe Geri this year, stepped up after cutting six players from the squad.

Geri, a triple-threat star for the National Football League for three seasons, refused to accept a contract he says calls for a substantial reduction in the reported $12,500 he got last year.

The club claims he was offered the same terms and agreed to report for training. Geri denies making any agreement.

Important Points To Be Ironed Out Before Title Fight

New York (AP)—Plans for a million dollar September title match between Heavyweight Champion Jersey Joe Walcott and Rocky Marciano, the Brockton, Mass., crusher, hinge on three important points:

1. Percentages. Felix Bocchicchio, Walcott's manager, insists on 45 per cent. Marty Weill, Marciano's manager, wants "more than 15 per cent." Promoter Jim Norris says he can allow only 90 percent.

2. Date. Weill and Norris prefer Tuesday, Sept. 23. Bocchicchio likes Sept. 15 or Sept. 16.

3. Site. Weill and Norris want New York's Yankee Stadium. Bocchicchio wants a place "where I can manage my fighter," possibly Jersey City or Philadelphia. All were discussed here yesterday but nothing definite was decided.
